You have a right to know more about aliyah and absorption

Aliyah is a new beginning that affects every aspect of life. The State of Israel and the Ministry of Aliyah and Immigrant Absorption make every effort in order to assist new immigrants during the process of aliyah and absorption, returning home, and adjusting quickly and easily to Israel.

The Ministry of Aliyah and Immigrant Absorption offers personal absorption counselors who speak new immigrants' native languages in order to provide personalized service and essential information about the assistance available during each stage of absorption, from initial arrangements through integration into every aspect of life in Israeli society.

Assistance to new immigrants is available in a variety of areas:

- ✓ Financial assistance.
- ✓ Acquiring language skills in Hebrew ulpan.
- ✓ Vocational assistance and aid to business entrepreneurs in Israel and while still overseas.
- ✓ Housing assistance: rental subsidies, mortgages for purchasing an apartment, assistance to specific eligibility-groups, and public housing.
- ✓ Assistance to students in higher education: tuition subsidies, academic guidance and counseling, and more.
- ✓ Assistance in education: for new-immigrant children and teenagers.
- ✓ Assistance for specific population groups.
- ✓ Promoting social and cultural integration and familiarization with Jewish heritage.
- ✓ Personalized service in new immigrants' own languages: advice and guidance to new immigrants on an individual, family, and group basis.
