

NO ONE HAS THE RIGHT TO HURT YOU

If you are a victim of physical, sexual, emotional, psychological or economic violence

Call the National Emergency Hotline now:

1-800-22-0000

The Hotline operates in Hebrew, Russian, English, French, Spanish and Amharic.

How can you identify the warning signs of domestic violence?

- 💡 If he is physically, verbally, emotionally or sexually violent towards you
- 💡 If he has outbursts of rage for no reason
- 💡 If he apologizes after every time that he hurts you
- 💡 If his behavior is coercive and domineering
- 💡 If he blames you for everything
- 💡 If he restricts you and forbids you from doing things that you like
- 💡 If he shows signs of extreme jealousy
- 💡 If he has extreme mood swings
- 💡 If he threatens to commit suicide if you leave him
- 💡 If he does not value your opinions
- 💡 If he tries to change you or educate you
- 💡 If you obey all the time without the ability to stop and think for a moment

If you recognize any of these warning signs and you are a victim of domestic violence, call one of the following numbers for information and assistance:

The Ministry of Social Affairs National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-22-0000

Association of Rape Crisis Centers Hotline: 1202

Ministry of Immigrant Absorption National Telephone Information Center: 03-9733333

BECAUSE NO ONE HAS THE RIGHT TO HURT YOU

www.moia.gov.il